Concert Series Presents:
Laurie Marchese, *So Many Stars

Oak Park, IL- Village Players Theatre Concert Series Presents celebrated singer Laurie Marchese performing an elegant evening of song and inspiration. Featuring favorite standards and ballads celebrating the blessings of life. "Through the gift of song we remember that we are all here to help each other and there is no greater celebration of life than to pursue our dreams," says Marchese.

Originally from Oak Lawn, Laurie is an ensemble member at Village Players Theatre and has performed professionally throughout Chicago and New York. She has appeared in the feature films My BodyGuard and The Roomate and has sung the national anthem at Wrigley Field, Cellular One Field and Soldier Field. And as a voice-over artist, Laurie has lent her voice to several national campaigns for both television and radio.

Performance is Saturday, October 20, 2007 at 8 p.m.. Tickets are $30 and can be purchased by calling 866-764-1010 or online at www.village-players.org. Plenty of street parking is available. The theatre is handicap accessible.

Village Players Theatre, Oak Park's Center for Performing Arts offers an eclectic mix of entertainment that empowers and inspires while exploring the human condition.
